provide the developers and engineers with clear view of what is required in fusion and the number of times that a plan needs to be resubmitted before i ndly environment while insuring that strict adherence to the ordinances and new fee schedule and to increase the efficient and timely review of site dev ed out in the ordinance, shall be followed:

Plan is submitted for review at no cost. The process works best when guid collaborating with a civil engineer.

re to be submitted to the Planning and Zoning Administrator along with $3 Commission meeting at which the Preliminary Plans are to be considered ( commend approval to the City Council or disapprove the Preliminary Plan re to be comprised of three separate plans: (1) Preliminary Subdivision ing Plan, (3) Preliminary Utility Plan.

Preliminary Plan three (3) copies of the Development Engineering Plans red, Erosion Control Plans are to be submitted to the Zoning Administrator neer approval along with $300.00 plus $10.00 for each lot ten (10) days pri
.

) signed copies and one reproducible mylar of the Plat, signed by Owners, Director of Equalization shall be submitted to the Zoning Administrator and Commission meeting. A charge of $90.00 for the first two lots, plus $10.00
lat. Re-Plats are charged $110.00 for the first two lots, plus $10.00